

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED AT WEPAWAUG-FLAGG FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

HAMDEN, CT – June 29, 2010 - Wepawaug-Flagg Federal Credit Union (WFFCU) awarded five scholarships to graduating high school seniors and college students. The scholarship recipients were selected by our Committee of WFFCU members based on the merit of the student essays, community service and references.

Cora Mahon a student of Chestnut Hill College is the recipient of the $2,000 Dennis Banks Memorial Scholarship. Wepawaug also awarded four $1,000 scholarships to the following students: Jillian DeGiacomo of Hamden High School, Evan Gambardella of North Haven High School, Alana Ladson of Wilbur Cross High School and Amanda Rich-Fiondella of North Haven High School.

Established in 1936, Wepawaug-Flagg Federal Credit Union serves employees and families of school systems and businesses throughout Hamden, Ansonia, Bethany, Cheshire, New Haven, North Branford, North Haven, Orange and Woodbridge, Connecticut. WFFCU is over $72 million in assets with over 12,000 members. WFFCU has four locations: 105 Sanford Street, Hamden CT; 2321 Whitney Street, Hamden CT; 200 Orange Street, New Haven CT in the Hall of Records Building and 501 Crescent Street, New Haven CT in the Student Center of Southern University. We offer a complete line of loans, deposit accounts, 24-hour online banking services and more.

For more information contact Jennifer Little-Greer, Marketing Director at 203-288-1695 Ext. 232 or visit us at <http://www.wffcu.org>.

